

it meets a line drawn from the southwest corner of Mrs. Rachel Bowdell's lot, to include the Methodist Protestant church; from the corner of Mrs. Rachel Bowdell's land to T. E. Lloyd's barn; thence to Samuel Hennessy's barn, and thence to the place of beginning; and the commissioners of said town may survey, locate and plat the said limits, and establish the same by durable boundaries, and may survey, locate and plat all lots, squares, streets, lanes, ways and alleys in said town, and such other lands or grounds as may be ceded for the benefit of said town.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 20, sec. 193.

213. An annual election for five commissioners of said town shall be held on the first Saturday in June in each year, at which any two or more of said commissioners shall be judges; their clerk shall give notice thereof at one or more of the most public places in said town, at least one week before, and shall attend and keep a record of the election under the direction of the judges, and notify those elected of their election.

Ibid. sec. 194.

214. If the election shall fail, or from any cause be prevented, on that day, it may be held on any subsequent day after one week's notice given by the clerk.

Ibid. sec. 195.

215. No person shall vote or be eligible to office at any such election, unless he be a male citizen, twenty-one years of age, and either a resident of said town for six months previous to the election, or holding property and paying town taxes in said town for that time.

Ibid. sec. 191.

216. Three of said five commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Ibid. sec. 192.

217. In case of a vacancy from any cause, the remaining commissioners may fill such vacancy until the next annual election.
